

SAFETY RULES

We are pleased to welcome You in one of the most famous hotels in the city. Staying in Kaluga is like staying in any other city. It is an attractive and safe provided You follow some safety rules. May we recommend the following tips:

- always lock your room when you leave it even for a very short period;
- take special care of your key card/ In gives you access to your Kaluga home and guarantee your privacy. Do not give it anyone else;
- avoid unnecessary accident by turning off the lights, taps and electrical equipment when you leave your room. Also please close all doors and windows;
- use safe deposits boxes in your room or at the Reception to safeguard your money and valuables. The hotel assumes responsibility only for the items placed in the safe deposit boxes at the Reception;
- do not invited strangers into your room and never allow any guests to be alone there;
- guests must insure not to carry any arsenal or dangerous items into the room or to any public areas inside the hotel;
- if any special requests arise or sudden problems occur, you should not hesitate to contact Hotel Management, we will be happy to assist you.

FIRE SAFETY RULES

Please observe fire safety regulations:

- avoid bringing and keeping inflammable materials in the room;
- we hope that you will not smoke in bed and leave cigarettes. It's dangerous;
- it should be recalled that it is extremely dangerous to cover switched-on floor and table lamps with some paper and fabric;
- it's dangerous to dry the items on the heating devices;
- please be careful and don't block and turn off fire warning sensors and dynamics of the
- notification of loudspeaker communication.

When you leave a room it's necessary:

- To switch off the light and electric devices.
- To leave a key at Front desk
- In case of ignition, smoke blanketing, emergence of a smell of burning or sound notification about a fire quest is obliged to leave a room immediately and to inform about it the administrator.

